

JOURNEY TO LOVE - Jill

JILL RAYMOND

Well brother, I'm family and I know someone you might like.

DAN FENTON

Really and who is this someone?

JILL RAYMOND

Dan, I'm trying to help you, and you're poo pooing it without giving me a chance to tell you about her.

DAN FENTON

OK. I'm sorry. How and where do you know this someone?

JILL RAYMOND

Do you remember Barbara from Ft. Lauderdale?

DAN FENTON

You mean Barbara Wisenstein?

JILL RAYMOND

Yes. That's the one. She lives in the Ocean Club condos.

DAN FENTON

How is she doing?

JILL RAYMOND

She's doing much better after her husband Sherman passed away two years ago. We can talk about Barbara later. I met this lovely woman at Barb's condo a few weeks ago. She and Barb are life long friends.

DAN FENTON

OK, OK. What's her name and where does she live?

JILL RAYMOND

Her name is Kim Holland and she lives in New York.

DAN FENTON

Acch! Stop right there! I'm not interested in long distance relationships. Even my therapist said that long distance relationships can be challenging.

JILL RAYMOND

Dan, there you go again. Give me a chance to explain why I think she may be right for you.

DAN FENTON

Sorry, continue.

JILL RAYMOND

You do know I've a keen sense of people.

(pause)

I have great vibes about Kim. Each month she travels through Baltimore to DC to visit her son. I think the two of you should meet one weekend. I want you to call her. I have her cell phone. Got something to write on?

DAN FENTON

Just a second.

Dan finds a pen nearby and a scrap of paper on a nearby coffee table.

JILL RAYMOND

Are you ready?

DAN FENTON

Yes, Go ahead.

Dan writes out the number onto the scrap of paper.

DAN FENTON

Got it.

JILL RAYMOND (V.O.)

When are you going to call her?

DAN FENTON

I'll get around to it soon.

JILL RAYMOND (V.O.)

Dan, I know you. You tend to procrastinate. Call her today. I think the two of you would like each other.

DAN FENTON

OK, OK. I will.
