

JOURNEY TO LOVE - Brenda

INT. A NURSING HOME DAY ROOM

Dan sits in a chair observing residents in wheelchairs and walkers moving through the room. Across the room Brenda is in quiet conversation with her aunt sitting in a wheel chair. Dan waves to Brenda and points to his watch. Brenda acknowledges by waving back that she needs a little more time by squeezing her thumb and forefinger together.

Title: 45 minutes Later

Brenda rises from her chair next to her aunt, gives her a kiss and walks toward Dan.

BRENDA

Dan, I'm sorry. You've been very patient. I know I spent more time than I expected with my aunt. I haven't seen her for more than a year. How about we now go for a walk outside?
